

CASE STUDY

THE CRESCENT

Location:
Salford, UK

Specwall was instructed on a retail unit situated below a residential apartment block in The Crescent Salford. The unit needed to be separated into three with a split-level mezzanine aspect which presented some serious design issues for both blockwork and metal frame walls.

The versatility of Specwall and the ease of installation made it the perfect choice to complete this job.

